$160 JHU Museums members & docents, $185 all others

The price includes motor coach transportation, museum admissions, curator-led tour of “Palladio and His Legacy,” privately hosted wine and cocktail buffet reception, snacks on the bus, and all tips and gratuities.

Depart promptly from Evergreen at 7am; return by 10pm.

THE FRICK COLLECTION / 10:30AM

One of the preeminent small art museums in the United States, the Frick has a very high-quality collection of Old Master paintings and fine furniture housed in 16 galleries within the former residence of steel magnate Henry Clay Frick. Following an 11-minute film telling the story of Mr. Frick, his home, and his art collection, you’ll have time to explore the museum and its current exhibition, Masterpieces of European Painting from Dulwich Picture Gallery, featuring nine exceptional European masterpieces from the Dulwich Picture Gallery in London, including signature works by Rembrandt, Van Dyck, Gainsborough, and others.

MORGAN LIBRARY & MUSEUM / 12:30PM

The Morgan Library & Museum houses one of the world’s greatest collections of artistic, literary, and musical works from ancient times to the present day. Pause for lunch at the Morgan’s café or dining room and enjoy time on your own in the museum before our exclusive tour of Palladio and His Legacy: A Transatlantic Journey, by curators Irena Murray, Charles Hind, and Calder Loth. This special exhibition features 31 original Palladio drawings from the Royal Institute of British Architects, on view to the public for the first time in over 30 years. These exquisite drawings are presented with rare architectural texts—and a custom-built model of Homewood—to illustrate the journey from Italy to North America of Palladio’s design principles of proportion, harmony, and beauty.

CURATOR’S RECEPTION HOSTED BY CINDY KELLY / 4:30PM

We’ll travel to the Upper East Side, where former JHU Museums director Cindy Kelly will host a wine and cocktail buffet reception for us and the Palladio exhibition curators at her 36th floor apartment, with magnificent views of the East River.

Please detach & return with check made payable to JHU Museums, to: Homewood Museum, 3400 N. Charles St., Baltimore, MD 21218. For more information, call Homewood at 410.516.5589.
