LONGWOOD GARDENS One of the world’s great gardens, Longwood’s story is one of legacy, innovation, and stewardship. Its gardens are a living expression of all that its founder, Pierre S. du Pont, found inspiring, meaningful, and beautiful. From the intricate fountain systems to the meticulous gardens to the architectural grandeur, awe-inspiring discoveries await at every turn. Years before it was a public garden, the land on which Longwood Gardens stands was home to the native Lenni Lenape tribe and Quaker farmers. Since then, the land has undergone significant transformation to become the magnificent property that is enjoyed by more than a million guests each year.

A LONGWOOD CHRISTMAS Christmas is a special season at Longwood, involving extensive horticultural displays and vibrant illuminations. This holiday season, Longwood is looking at the Christmas tree in a new light. During Tree Reimagined, you’ll find festive firs suspended from above, towering tannenbaums created from materials ranging from books to birdhouses to stained glass, and more traditional favorites elevated with surprising new twists. Outdoors, gloriously illuminated trees lead you on an enchanting holiday journey through the gardens. Stroll underneath floating orbs of light, watch as tree roots and branches take new illuminated life, and see the Main Fountain Garden as you’ve never seen it before. Warm up by welcoming fire pits, listen to carolers, and bask in the wonder of A Longwood Christmas. Enjoy a range of meal options in the cafeteria and browse the gift shop for unique gifts.

PLEASE DETACH AND SEND TO Evergreen Museum & Library, 4545 North Charles St., Baltimore, MD 21210. For more information: 410.516.0341 or museums@jhu.edu.
